impart interest to the narrative; but names and places and dates are the things that produce conviction and prove that the introductory sketches of the Lundy family have been determined with historical certainty.

The Children and Grandchildren of Richard Lundy II. and Elizabeth Large.

There were five sons and four daughters. All were born in Bucks county, Pennsylvania, between the years 1715 and 1732. All had birthright membership in the Religious Society of Friends; all finished their course and kept the faith. They all married; and, with the possible exception of Margaret the youngest child, all left offspring and have numerous descendants living at the present time. They all settled in Warren county, New Jersey, between the years 1745 and 1748; this was before the French and Indian War, and Warren county was a part of Sussex. All continued to dwell there in the vicinity of Johnsonburg and Allamuchy, and all died there, except Martha (Lundy) Schooley, who, in 1759, removed to Newton only ten miles away.. Richard III. died in 1756 at 41 years of age, Joseph in 1759 at 40 years, Margaret in 1766 at 34, Thomas in 1773 or thereafter at 48 or more, Jacob in 1800 at 79, Samuel in 1801 at 74, Martha in 1803 at 80, Mary in 1807 at 91, and Elizabeth in 1811 at 81. Their average age was sixty-two years.

How many grandchildren were there?

A full and correct list of the names of all children born to each family has been obtained, except in the case of Joseph and of Margaret. Richard III. had eleven children, Mary eight, Jacob ten, Martha five, Thomas six, Samuel twelve, and Elizabeth twelve, making a total of sixty-four grandchildren in these seven households. It is known with certainty that Joseph had at least one child, giving a total of sixty-five known grandchildren.

I. Richard Lundy III. was born 23 of 4th month, 1715; his death date is given at the bottom of the first page of the Hardwick Record of Births in these words: "The above-named Richard Lundy Departed this Life the 7th of the 11th Month, 1757, and was Decently Buryed in Friends burying ground at Hardwick."

He married Ann Willson at Maiden Creek, Pa., in 1739, and settled near Allamuchy, Warren county, N. J., in 1746. Ten of his eleven children grew to maturity; namely, Samuel, William, Amos, Sarah (Kester), Richard IV., Ann (Webster), Ebenezer, John, Eliezer, and Azariah. Samuel and William removed to Canada; Samuel locating near Newmarket and William at Lundy's Lane; Ebenezer and Eliezer settled in Bucks county, Pa.; and Amos, Sarah, Richard IV., John, and the family of Azariah emigrated to Virginia.

The names of all the descendants of Richard III., so far as it has been possible to trace and identify the same, have been classified in the accompanying genealogy under Group One.

II. Mary Lundy was born 6 of 11 month, 1716. The first entry in the list of Burials kept by the Hardwick Society of Friends states that "Mary Willson, widow of Robert Willson, deceased, and lately residing in the Township of Independence, County of Sussex, N. J., died 3 month 4 day, 1807, at the age of ninety years, and was buried at Hardwick Meeting-house." Mary was an Elder in the Religious Society of Friends. She married Robert Willson at Buckingham, Pa., in 1734. They removed to Maiden Creek, Pa., in 1737, and thence to the great Meadows in Warren county, N. J., in 1747. Their homestead is still in the Willson name (1901). They had eight children, five of whom attained maturity and married; namely, Ebenezer, Jonathan, Mary (Willets), Moses, and Martha (Widdifield). Their descendants are enumerated under Group Two.

III. Joseph Lundy was born 24 of 4 month, 1719. There is reason to believe that he died in 1759. He married Susanna Hutton at Maiden Creek, Berks county, Pa., in 1743, and removed to Warren county, N. J., in 1745. Joseph and Susanna certainly had a son Enos of Newmarket, Ontario, Canada, and probably other children among whom may have been William of Newton, N. J., and Sarah (Carpenter) of Pennsylvania. In 1758 a Joseph Lundy married Sarah Willson. It is possible that among Joseph's children were also Nancy Lundy, Catherine Lundy, and Hannah Lundy, who married Samuel Shotwell of Sussex county, N. J. For further information, see Group Three.

IV. Jacob Lundy was born 15 of 6 month, 1721. An old entry made on the inside of the first cover-leaf of the Hardwick Record of Births, opposite the entry of his birth date, states that "Jacob Lundy departed this Life the 17th day of the 1st

GROUP THREE.

THE DESCENDANTS OF

Joseph Lundy

OF WARREN COUNTY, NEW JERSEY.

BORN IN 1719; DIED IN 1759.

LINEAGE.

1. Sylvester Lundy, of Axminster, England.
2. Richard Lundy I. and Jane Lyon, of Bucks Co., Pa.
3. Richard Lundy II. and Elizabeth Large, of Warren Co., N. J.
4. Joseph Lundy and Susanna Hutton, of Warren Co., N. J.

The line then divides into three branches:

I. Sarah Lundy and Joseph Carpenter.
II. Enos Lundy, Sr., and Rachel Carpenter.
III. Hannah Lundy and Samuel Shotwell.

Joseph Lundy, whose name stands at the beginning of this Group, was the son of Richard Lundy II. and Elizabeth Large. Joseph was born in Bucks county, Pa., 24 of 4 mo., 1719. The first occurrence of his name is found on the minutes of the Exeter Monthly Meeting at Maiden Creek in Berks county, Pa.; in which minutes it is stated that on 31 day of 1 mo., 1743, Joseph Lundy and Susanna Hutton were left at liberty to marry.

Joseph and his wife Susanna requested on 30 day 3 mo., 1745, from the Exeter Meeting a certificate of membership addressed to the Bethlehem (afterward Kingwood, now Quakertown) Monthly Meeting in Hunterdon county, N. J..

which certificate they presented at Bethlehem of the 8 day of 5 mo. following.

Joseph was a witness to the will of his brother Richard III. in 1756.

On the 14 day of 9 mo., 1758, a certain Joseph Lundy declared his intention to marry Sarah Willson of Hardwick township. In 1759, letters of administration were granted on the estate of a Joseph Lundy; see Liber IX., page 392, among Wills, at Trenton, N. J. Since no descriptive term such as senior or junior is applied to either of the two Josephs last mentioned, it seems natural to regard them as identical with Joseph the husband of Susanna Hutton.

It is not known how many children Joseph and Susanna had; definite information has been obtained in regard to only one of them, their son Enos. Tradition has handed down the name of a daughter Sarah; this Sarah may have been the Sarah Lundy who with Joseph Carpenter made their first declaration of intention of marriage, before the Kingwood Monthly Meeting on 8 day of 9 mo., 1768.

Among the witnesses to the marriage of Jesse Dennis and Ann Schooley on 18 of 10 mo., 1781, at Newton, N. J., were Nancy Lundy and Hannah Lundy; and among the witnesses to the marriage of George Lundy and Esther Willson at the Hardwick Meeting-house on 15 of 3 mo., 1780, was Catharine Lundy. The parentage and relationship of Nancy, Hannah, and Catharine have not been ascertained. There is no further record concerning Nancy and Catharine; Hannah in 1788 marmied Samuel Shotwell and settled in Sussex county, N. J. I venture to classify Nancy, Hannah and Catharine, provisionally, as the children of Joseph Lundy.

JOSEPH LUNDY AND SUSANNA HUTTON.

I. William, of Newton township, Sussex county, N. J., assigned here inferentially; m. Mary Webster.

II. Sarah, assigned here by tradition; m. Joseph Carpenter.

III. Enos, Sr., b. 31st day of 1st mo., 1749, in New Jersey; d. on 28th day of 3rd mo., 1832, at Whitchurch, York county, Ontario; m. Rachel Carpenter.

IV. Hannah, assigned here doubtfully; m. Samuel Shotwell.

V. Nancy, possibly; no further record.
VI. Catherine, possibly; no further record.

William Lundy, on April 13, 1769, obtained from the civil government a license to marry Mary Webster; the bond given at that time by him in order to obtain the license is recorded at Trenton, N. J., in volume L, Licenses of Marriage, years 1764-1794. Asa Schooley was William's bondman; and all the persons are described as of Newton, Sussex county, N. J. No further record.

It may be of interest to insert here a copy of the marriage license anciently required by law in the province of New Jersey.

Know all men by these Presents that we William Lundy and Asa Schooley, both of Newtown in the County of Sussex & Province of New Jersey, are holden and do stand justly indebted unto his Excellency Wm. Franklin, Esq., Governor and Commander in Chief in & over ye province afsd in the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds of current lawful money of New Jersey to be paid to his said Excellency Wm Franklin, Esq., his successors or assigns, for which Payment well and truly to be made and done, we do bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, and every of them, jointly and severally, firmly by these Presents; sealed with our seals, dated this thirteenth Day of April Annoque Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Nine.

The Condition of this Obligation is such, That Whereas the above-bounden William Lundy hath obtained License of Marriage for himself of the one Party and for Mary Webster of Newtown afsd of the other Party: Now, if it shall not hereafter appear that they the said William Lundy and Mary Webster have any lawful Let or Impediment of Precontract, Affinity, or Consanguinity, to hinder their being joined in the Holy Bands of Matrimony and afterwards their living together as Man and Wife; then this Obligation to be void or else stand and remain in full Force and Virtue.

J.; and in 1789 a certificate of membership came from the same place for his wife and children. A portion of the Exeter Meeting was set off and organized as the Millville Meeting; Enos and his family were assigned to the new Meeting. Enos served on a committee in Friends' Society at Millville, Pa., in 1796. On 22 day of 12 mo., 1798, his daughters Elizabeth and Susanna requested to become members of the Millville Meeting; and at the same time Enos requested that his son Isaac and his daughter Ruth (minors) become members.
